

I am very opposed to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

This does not serve the public interest in any way and Mr. Kerry should be given equal time on Sinclair to show anti-Bush information if this is allowed. But honestly, it simply should not be allowed and I believe this is allowed because of blatant partisan favoritism at the FCC to Republicans.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
